

Getting Involved with CED-

There are many ways to be a part of CED's work, which supports job creation and positive retail in the South Atlanta Community. Below are the giving options that you may choose from:

- ⇒ Community Grounds Café- www.communitygrounds.org
 - Invest in starting up Community Grounds Cafe! We need $5000 for start up costs to be fully operational.
 - Community Grounds is currently serving coffee and tea on a daily basis. Stop in and enjoy a cup!
 - We are currently selling 1 lb bags of our coffee for $10. This is perfect for your home, church, or office
 - Encourage your business or church to allow Community Grounds Café to be your official coffee supplier. We can supply all of your coffee needs right to your location. Call us for special pricing and information.
- ⇒ Firetongue Music Studio- www.firetonguemusic.org
 - Buy a South Atlanta Sounds CD, recorded in the studio by various artists living in the neighborhood (<http://prideforparents.org/goods/south-atlanta-sounds/>)
 - Take lessons! We offer guitar, drums, and vocal lessons
 - Donate instruments for perspective students to take lessons
 - Sponsor scholarships for lessons ($60) or studio time ($25)
- ⇒ South Atlanta Marketplace- www.satmarketplace.org
 - Donate new and used items- clothing, household, toys, etc...
 - Participate in one of our three drive: Spring Cleaning, Back-to-School, Pride for Parents Toy Drive
 - Looking for creative and inspiring gifts for someone? Come browse our section called Goods for the Common Good. Help support local artists in the South Atlanta Community.
- ⇒ General Support- Listed above are some specific ways you can get involved with CED, but you may also consider:
 - Becoming a monthly donor to FCS Community Economic Development
 - Give a one time gift
 - Help with special projects: Web design, South Atlanta Cookbook, Marketing, Business Development

All monetary gifts go directly to supporting job creation in South Atlanta.
